In response to the needs of the nation and global challenges, we strive to assimilate ourselves with the constant changes by continually expanding our knowledge and exploration into science, technology and engineering. ICoAIMS 2017 will serve as a platform for researchers and practitioners from around the world to share ideas of mathematics and research experiences. Thus, we kindly invite scholars, researchers, professionals and academicians to submit papers to the ICoAIMS 2017. Accepted papers of this conference will be published by the Institute of Physics (IOP) Conference Series (indexed by SCOPUS).
